I recently found out that you take part time jobs as well and I wanted to reach out because id genuinely love to considered for a role at Magari. Ive been a regular customer for a while and I really admire the place , atmosphere and the quality along with the service your team consistently creates.

I am currently available for the next two months and can commit to either a part time job or a full time job. I am confident in interacting with people , enjoy fast paced environments and have a strong interest in cafes and the restaurant space. I live just 5 minutes away , so I can be very punctual and flexible with shifts.
